Newsletter

week beginning September 23rd

Dear families,

We have been so impressed with how all your children have returned to/started school. They are all displaying our values of compassion, friendship and perseverance.

Celebrating – We have discussed how we celebrate everyone in our schools and are changing our ‘star of the week’. We are really focussing on giving praise and DoJos for embodying our values, however, we will no longer celebrate this so publicly in assembly.

We do still want you to come in though! You will be invited in to work alongside your child in class or to look at the end of topic work in class. Teacher’s will invite you in at least once a term.

Homework – It’s like marmite. Some of you love it and some of you hate it. We have taken on your feedback and adjusted our policy.

Homework will be optional for children except for reading. Reading is absolutely key to so many academic achievements (as well as being a wonderful way to relax, share, enjoy) We expect your child(ren) to read daily.

Introducing Kirstie - Kirstie Woodcock has joined us this year and is mostly based in Y5 at All Saints, however, Kirstie has successfully completed the Norfolk Domestic Abuse Champion Training. If you would like to speak to Kirsty, please email her directly on kwoodcock@stibbardallsaints.com.

A big thank you to the FRIENDS of Stibbard as each class now has provisions for our SEND children.

In addition whole school items have been bought including wobble cushions, weighted lap blanket and chair bands.

Polite reminder - children should only bring items from home if pre arranged with the class teacher / SENDco.
