Newsletter

Week beginning November 25th

Dear families,

It is nearly December. The children are very excited about presents and elves. Could we ask, respectfully, that we keep the excitement in check by not sending your child into school with festive jumpers or head wear (or elves) yet...

Behaviour in school:

We have high expectations of your child(ren)s behaviour in school. We expect them to come in appropriately dressed in uniform and weather appropriate clothing. They need to enter school in the morning on time and ready to learn. Water only in bottles (unless a specific medical condition has approved juice). Snack is fruit or veg only. We are seeing some chocolate and crisps sneaking out at breaktime. This is not a healthy option and we do not allow it at break.

If a child refuses to complete work during lesson times, they are expected to catch up at break/lunch. If work still is not completed, we will send it home and expect you to support that learning and expectation at home.

We have been very clear with all children that we do not tolerate any 'rough stuff'. This includes play fighting. Please reiterate this message at home too.
